

UXL Foundation Monthly Update April 2024

UXL Foundation April 2024 Highlights

- We have added 7 new members in the past month
- First community webinar held hosted by the Linux Foundation
  - 78 attendees live and 179 registered
  - More than 25 questions asked through the platform
- First UXL Foundation newsletter was sent with good engagement
- UXL represented by members at 3 conferences

UXL Foundation Members

Steering Members

arm

FUJITSU

Google Cloud

Imagination

intel

Qualcomm

SAMSUNG

vmware®
by Broadcom

Contributor Members

AKHETONICS

FIXSTARS
Speed up your Business

AXELERA
ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

CloudsAI

codasip

CODE RECKONS
Science to the CORE

EMBECOSM®

G
GNAC Intelligence

MARKET
POTENTIAL

XIANGDIXIAN®
COMPUTING TECHNOLOGY
象帝先计算技术

Marketing Update

- UXL presented to attendees of Embedded World on the Imagination Technologies booth
- At the Open Source Summit in Seattle a Alison Richards presented our efforts in standardisation
- UXL members hosted a hackfest at IWOCCL helping attendees use the UXL projects

Working Groups

Open Source Working Group

Project best practices work package

- Issues progressing with targets set

Security processes and infrastructure work package

- Email group established
- Policies being updated

Work is ongoing to facilitate repo migration to new organisations and set up public build infrastructure

Specification Working Group

- Specification has been migrated to independent infrastructure
- Setting up new UXL subdomain

Special Interest Groups

- Math SIG met with around 20 attendees to hear about changes to the oneMKL SPARSE interface

Meeting notes and presentations are available in GitHub.

Upcoming

- Event representation at HPC Days and ISC during May
- Language, Hardware and Safety Critical SIG meetings
- Published UXL strategy documents
- Work package planning for public build infrastructure